'Where excellence is a habit'

2nd July 2020

Dear Parent / Carer,

For the duration of lockdown St Aidan's Catholic Academy has been gladly offering support to our students with parents/carers who are key workers and have no alternative childcare. We hope that the help that has been provided by the school has been useful for your son, and that he has managed to stay in control of his subject work.

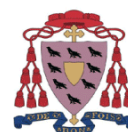

We are proud to say that the Academy has not closed for a single day, including Easter, half term and bank holidays, since the announcement of the National school closures. Staff have worked tirelessly to ensure adequate work has been set for students to complete in these very difficult, unprecedented circumstances.

The Secretary of State for Education confirmed this week that he is not asking schools to open over the summer holidays, and there is no expectation that schools should open for vulnerable children and children of critical workers over this period.

We will keep you up to date with arrangements for September however school will close for the summer break for the children of keyworkers at 12.30pm on Thursday 16th July 2020.

Yours sincerely,

Mr Glenn Sanderson
